ABOUT

American Fashion Network (AFN) is a uniform, workwear, and corporate apparel design and manufacturing company based in Syracuse, NY with offices in Wisconsin, California and Guatemala. Our manufacturing footprint consists of the USA, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, Puerto Rico and Mexico. We are committed to serving American workers with uniforms, workwear, and corporate apparel and we design with a culture of innovation and inclusivity. As a certified women-owned business, AFN took 18 years of retail experience and expertise to the corporate and government procurement space.

WHAT WE OFFER

DESIGN. AFN designs with an intimate understanding of the consumer. Our in-house art department develops custom graphics, screen print, embroidery and digital design.

SPEED. AFN provides an accelerated timeline from concept to customer. We are able to offer shorter deliveries, saving time and money.

AGILITY. AFN has the ability to pivot and change in motion to meet shifting customer needs.

DIVERSITY. AFN satisfies diversity spend and supply mandates for our customers.

SPEC + FIT. Our team of certified technical designers and highly skilled pattern makers understand the importance of a great and consistent fit for all shapes and sizes. We specialize in gender specific sizing and offer standard, petite, plus, maternity and big & tall size options.

CUSTOMER SERVICE + COLLABORATION. Serving our customers with urgency and excellence is our passion. Our biggest successes are when we collaborate with our customers to create custom, made to order product.

KEY DIFFERENTIATORS

- 18 years of retail experience and expertise joins us in the corporate and government procurement space.
- American Made with US manufacturing as well as Mexico, Central America, and Puerto Rico.
